

At present, I feel I have no honest source of information other than public broadcast. Large media companies have already been allow to ignore the public's needs, and further deregulation will destroy my confidence in our government to protect the public's interest PLEASE stop further media deregulation by voting against FCC rule change on June 2.